

ABMDI COURSE ACCREDITATION PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

The ABMDI is providing guidelines to be used in evaluating proposed training for continuing education. The guidelines shall be updated as necessary and approved by the Board at their annual meeting(s).

The following guidelines are used to evaluate proposed training:

1. Courses approved for continuing education credit by one of the following groups or agents will be accepted including any internet course and/or any telecourse that is interactive in its design or has a local facilitator that are relevant to the field of medicolegal death investigation: American Medical Association, Category I;; American Bar Association; American Nursing Association; American Academy of Physicians Assistants; American Society for Clinical Pathology; College of American Pathologists; Emergency Medical Services; Federal Emergency Management Agency; International Association for Continuing Education and Training, Peace Officer Standards and Training; Pennsylvania Coroners Education Board and US Department of Homeland Security.
2. Courses offered by an educational institution that has been accredited by one of the National Accrediting Educational Associations that are relevant to the field of medicolegal death investigation, e.g. Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, etc.
3. Programs not included in 1 or 2 above must be reviewed by the ABMDI using the attached Request for Course Accreditation Form in order to be considered for approval.
 - a. Requests must be submitted at least 60 days prior to the program date, to allow time for review and notification.
 - b. The ABMDI will review the materials submitted with the Request for Course Accreditation Form to evaluate content and determine whether the course meets ABMDI standards for accreditation.
4. All courses claimed for CEU must receive approval prior to instruction.
5. A course accreditation number will be issued for approved courses.
6. Re-accreditation is required annually. However, previously approved courses require only the Request for Course Accreditation Form including a statement on the Form that there have been no significant changes to the content of the course and a syllabus/ schedule to verify there have been no changes.
 - a. Curriculum changes will require new accreditation/review.
7. There will be a $50 fee for courses not approved by #1 or #2.
