NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF JUSTICE
PUBLISHES RESOURCE WEBPAGE FOR THE MEDICAL EXAMINER
AND CORONER COMMUNITY

WASHINGTON – The National Institute of Justice, a component of the Department of Justice’s Office of Justice Programs, today announced a new resource for medical examiners, coroners, and death investigators. A product of a Department of Justice and Department of Health and Human Services working group launched in March 2018, the resource page serves as a single-source for information regarding current federal programs and grant-funding opportunities that support medicolegal death investigation (MDI) activities to advance both public safety and public health initiatives.

TITLE: Federal Interagency Medicolegal Death Investigation Working Group Resource Page

PUBLISHER: Office of Justice Programs

About the Office of Justice Programs (OJP)

The Office of Justice Programs, headed by Laura L. Rogers, provides federal leadership in developing the nation’s capacity to prevent and control crime, administer justice and assist victims. OJP has six bureaus and offices: the Bureau of Justice Assistance; the Bureau of Justice Statistics; the National Institute of Justice; the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention; the Office for Victims of Crime; and the Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering and Tracking (SMART). More information about OJP and its components can be found at www.ojp.gov.
